FOREWORD

The Senior Class is happy to present THE SYLVAN 1961, devoted to the idea that school life is made up of school spirit, knowledge, and leisure. The pages of this volume record activities involving school spirit, knowledge, and leisure. It is our belief that school life is a combination of

A SEARCH FOR KNOWLEDGE

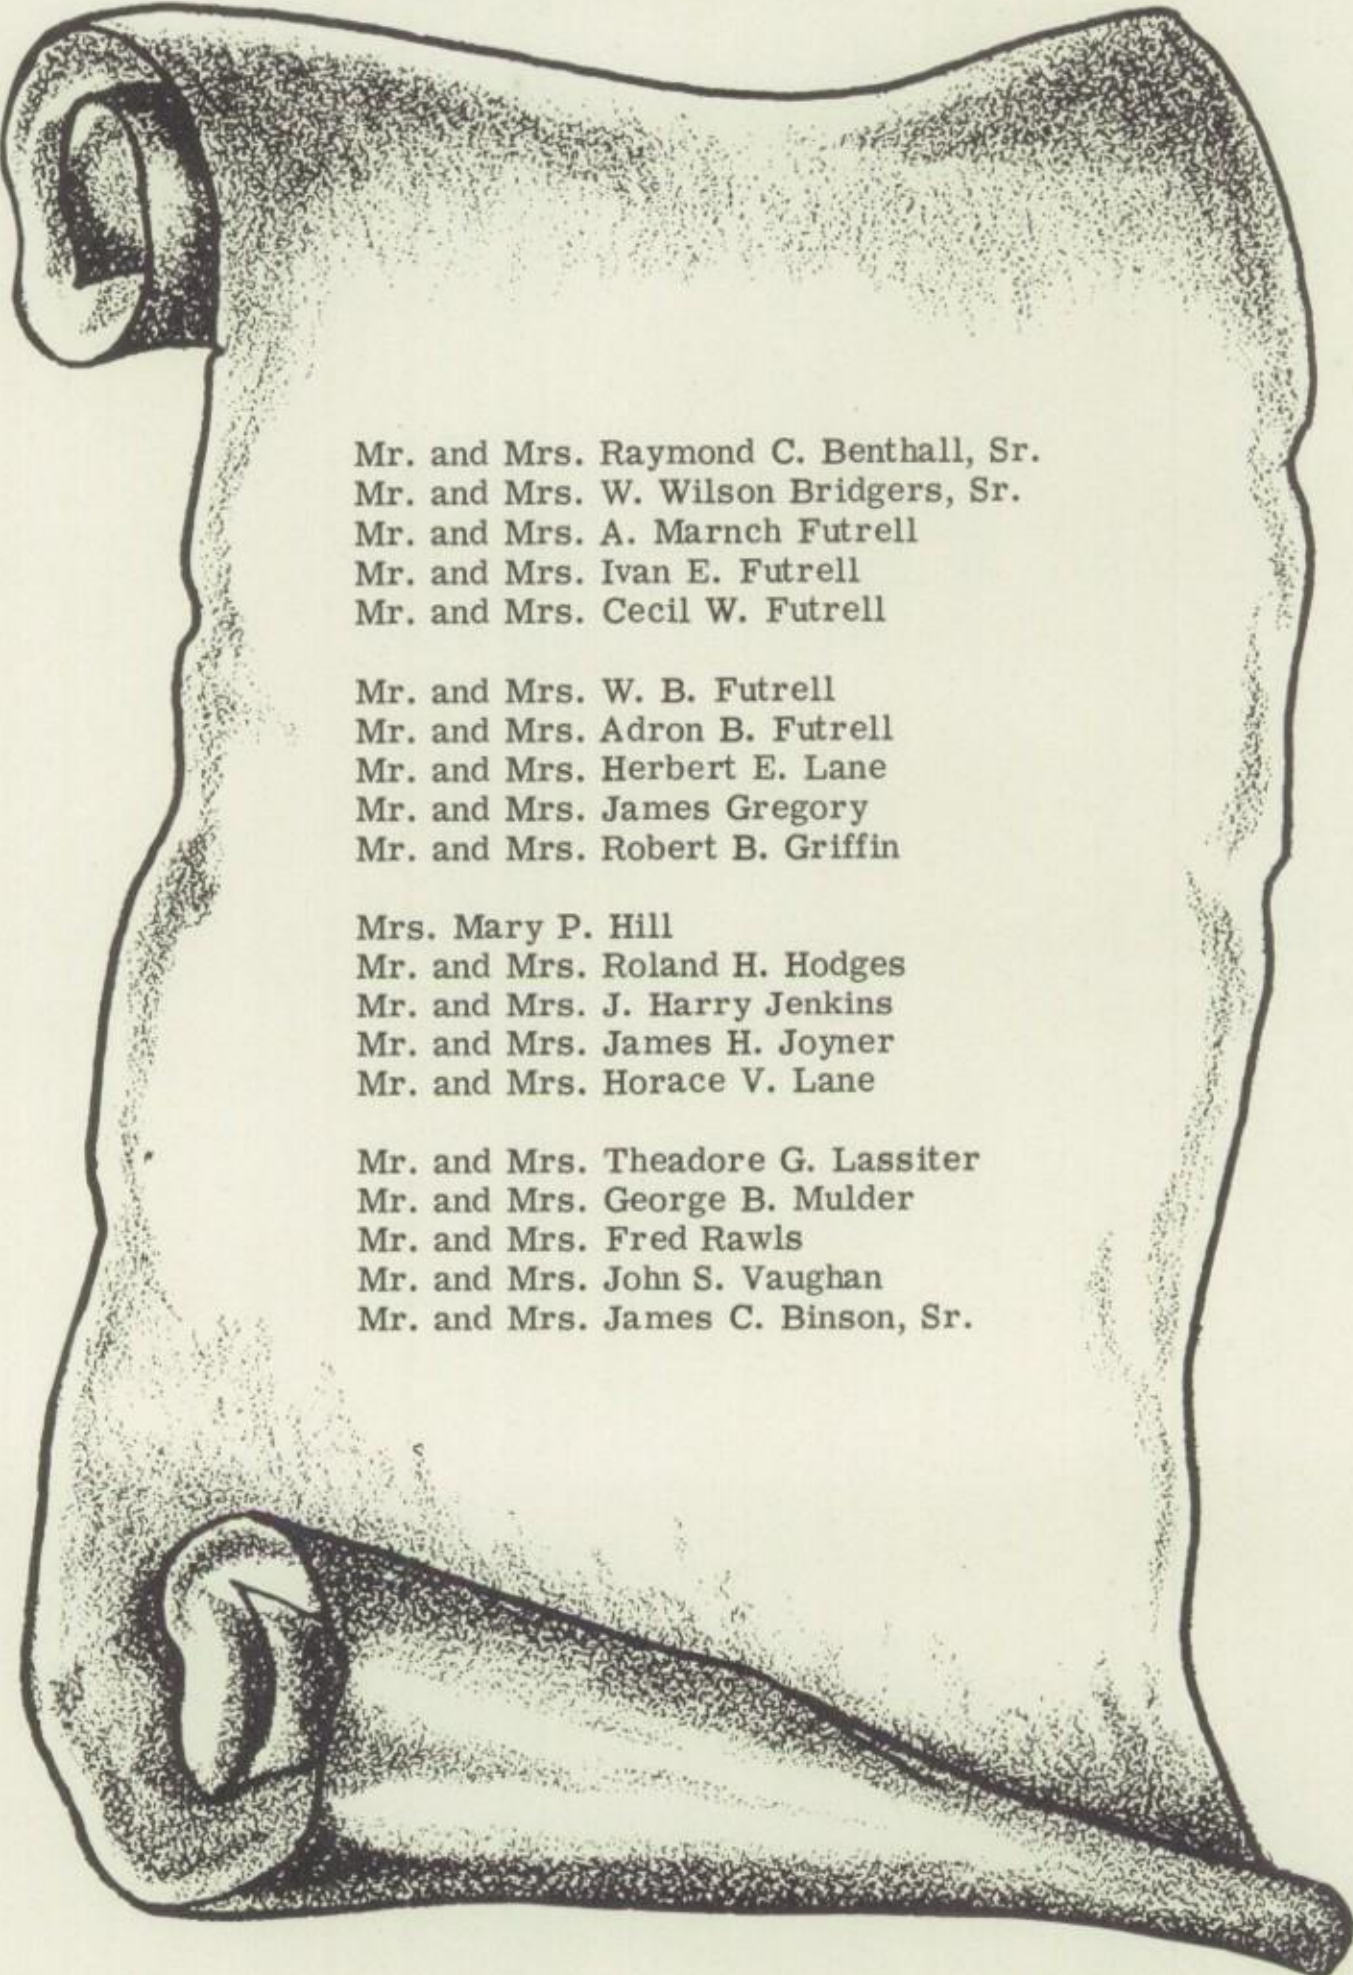

AND A LOVE OF LEISURE

DEDICATION TO OUR PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Binson, Sr.

In loving appreciation and deepest gratitude we, the Seniors of 1961, inscribe on this scroll the names of our parents. They have rejoiced with us in our triumphs, been a solace to us in our disappointments, instilled in us moral and responsible attitudes toward life, supported us in class activities, and faithfully worked with us through all school experiences. To them, we dedicate THE SYLVAN of 1961.

ADMINISTRATION

OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL

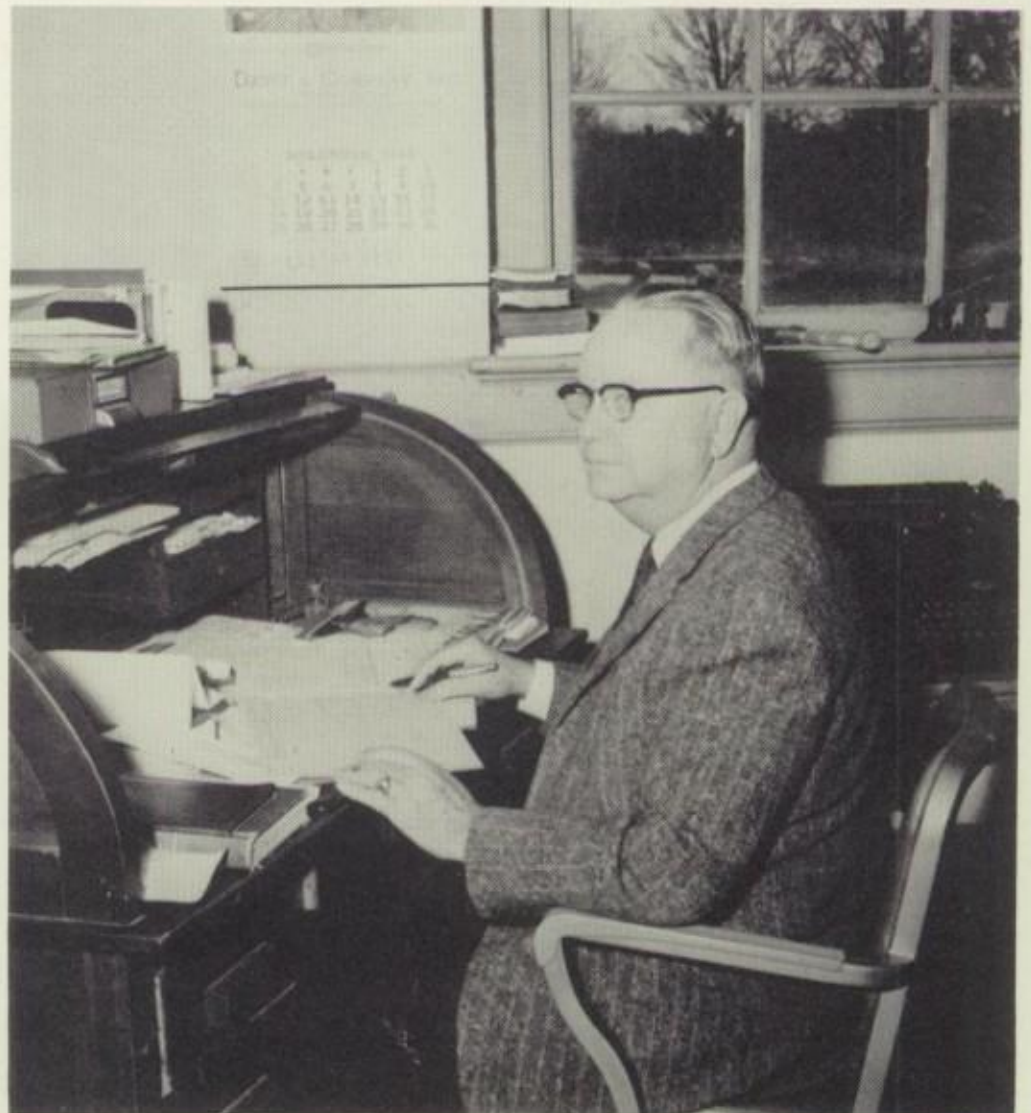

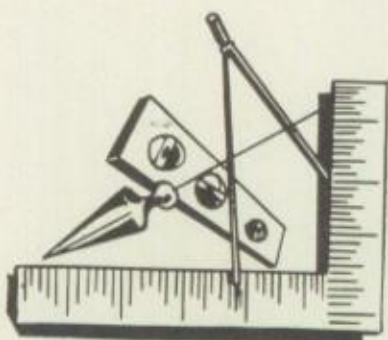

BULLETIN

The wheels of the school run smoothly because Mr. B. L. White, principal of Woodland-Olasy High School for the last seventeen years, steers the course. Although he teaches mathematics three periods of the day, he is able to keep the school under surveillance.

To support Mr. White in his administering of school affairs, there is a most interested school board composed of Mr. Walter Reinhardt, chairman; Mrs. John Vaughan, secretary; Mr. Clyde Jenkins; Mr. G. C. Parker; Mr. James C. Vinson. This group meets regularly the last Monday night in the month.

Through the office come the directives from the county level where Mr. E. D. Johnson presides as county superintendent and Dr. C. G. Parker as Chairman of the county school board.
